

Sydney Where

What's happening around town this month by Carrington Publishing

Look out for these weekly feature covers throughout the month of February

Inside the Sydney Opera House: pages 12 - 14

A great feature explaining the history and architecture (right) of Sydney's most iconic building. We find out about the building's designer Jørn Utzon and we take a closer look inside with Steven Reilly from the Sydney Opera House.

What's On: pages 6 - 9

Throughout Feb: Star Wars Exhibition, Powerhouse Museum
1 - 28 Feb: Opera Australia - Madama Butterfly & The Magic Flute
From 3 Feb: BUDDY - The Buddy Holly Story, Star City
5 - 15 Feb: Judith Lucy, Sydney Opera House
7 - 8 Feb: Chinese New Year, Darling Harbour
14 Feb: Sydney Royal Wine Show, Sydney Olympic Park
14 Feb - 7 Mar: Mardi Gras Festival

Movie Extra Tropfest: page 24

The world's biggest short film festival is back. Movie Extra Tropfest (right) is expected to attract thousands to The Domain on Sunday, 22 February. See all the finalist films as well as live entertainment from 12pm. www.tropfest.com

Live Performances: pages 18 - 20

BUDDY - The Buddy Holly Story - Star City
Madama Butterfly - Sydney Opera House
The Magic Flute - Sydney Opera House
The Removalists - Sydney Theatre Company
The War of the Roses - Sydney Theatre
Twilight at Taronga - Taronga Zoo
Wind of Shaolin - State Theatre

Sydney Jewish Museum: pages 8, 68 and 73

This month check out our special feature box in Where to Go showcasing the new major permanent exhibition - Culture and Continuity: Journey through Judaism at the Sydney Jewish Museum. The exhibition explores Jewish history from biblical times through to the thriving Jewish community in Australia today.

Screen Scene: pages 22 - 23

This month we review - Rachel Getting Married starring Anne Hathaway, about a young woman returning home for her sister's wedding; Ghost Town about a dentist's medical mishap that allows him to see dead people and The Reader, starring Kate Winslet (right), set in 1950's Germany and based on the novel by Bernard Schlink.

Sydney Where

The inside word on attractions, shopping, dining and nightlife

Postales Restaurante & Tapas Bar: pages 94 & 95

This new Spanish restaurant and tapas bar is located in the GPO Building (formerly Post Restaurant). It is a fantastic new addition to the current dining options at GPO. Enjoy tapas dishes ranging from $11 - $19 and mains from $32 - $34. Dine in a relaxed yet sophisticated setting.

Façonnable: pages 32 - 35

The modern elegance of the French Riviera arrives in Sydney. Façonnable is an amazing collection of stunning ready-to-wear southern French menswear; womenswear; boyswear; watches and accessories. With floorless service from Jean-Paul Lansun and his staff, your guests will truly experience fashion shopping as it was meant to be. (The WHERE Magazine facebook page has a fashion and store gallery)

City Extra: pages 81 & 83

Where can you get a steak at 3am in the morning or bacon and eggs in the afternoon?

City Extra is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and provides relaxed casual dining in a fantastic location at Circular Quay, directly opposite the Manly Ferry.

Sydney's Wine Bars: pages 100 - 101

WHERE has started a sensational new special feature showcasing three of Sydney's best wine bars - Number One Wine Bar, Verandah Restaurant and Wine Bar and Wine Odyssey. We also feature an interview with Andrew Cullen from Bilson's, who is a member of the Guild of Master Sommeliers.

Number One Wine Bar

Sensational French influenced food with Spanish flair from enigmatic Spanish Chef Miguel Maetrel. Try their new superb 'wine flights' or just sit back and watch the world rush by. 1 Alfred Street, Circular Quay. Open Mon-Fri 12pm-12am and Saturday 5pm-12am.

Verandah Restaurant and Wine Bar

Enjoy an amazing selection of the best wines, 30 by the glass and over 300 by the bottle, a truly wonderful setting with open verandah doors and airconditioning. Mezzanine Level, 60 Castlereagh Street, Sydney. Open Mon-Fri 12pm-3pm, Wine Bar Wed-Fri 6pm till late.

Wine Odyssey A unique wine experience to say the least. A combination of a wine bar, bottle shop, wine tasting room, educational wine theatre and smell sensory experience. Wine Odyssey is a great place to eat, drink, learn and share a passion for Australian boutique wines. Cnr Argyle and Harrington Sts, The Rocks.

WHERE Magazine on Facebook

WHERE Magazine facebook page continues to grow with new galleries going up all the time. Become a fan so we can tag you in images and update you automatically when new images go up. This month we have added Sydney Wine Bars gallery.

